A variety of learning assets encourage research and stimulate interest:

Outstanding Online Resources for All Instructional Strategies

Project-Based Learning

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:
Learn360 (pp. 4-5): This ultimate resource of more than 130,000 media assets—including videos, interactives, comprehension exercises, and fact sheets—is ideal for both student projects and classroom activities.

Today's Science and Science Online (pp. 9-11): Find Science Fair guides and experiments and activities that can be done in class or off-site.

World Geography and Culture (p. 25): 1,600 original maps, unique and powerful tools for comparing and ranking countries and U.S. states, and comprehensive information on all major countries, states, and provinces make this a must-have resource for any geography or social studies project.

Blended Instruction

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:
Science Online (pp. 10-11): The wealth of STEM assets includes interactive experiments, which replicate the in-class laboratory experience, and eLearning Modules with valuable Teacher Support Materials.

History Research Center (pp. 20-21): Its original, SMART Board-friendly slideshows offer a visual introduction to key topics and themes for in-class overviews, plus comprehensive Topic Centers provide virtual study guides.

The World Almanac® for Kids (pp. 16-17): This multisubject resource features important Homework Help and Teacher Support sections, plus plenty of interactive crossword and word search puzzles for in-class activities.

1:1 Learning Initiatives

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:
Middle / High School eBook Subscription (p. 27): Thousands of titles across all subjects, with simultaneous use and no check-in/checkout, ensure each student has access to any title at any time with no time restrictions.

Classroom Video On Demand and Learn360 (pp. 4-7): The premier resources for engaging, exclusive video let you embed persistent and authenticated videos and clips into online catalogs, distance education courses, and learning management systems.

Flipped Classrooms

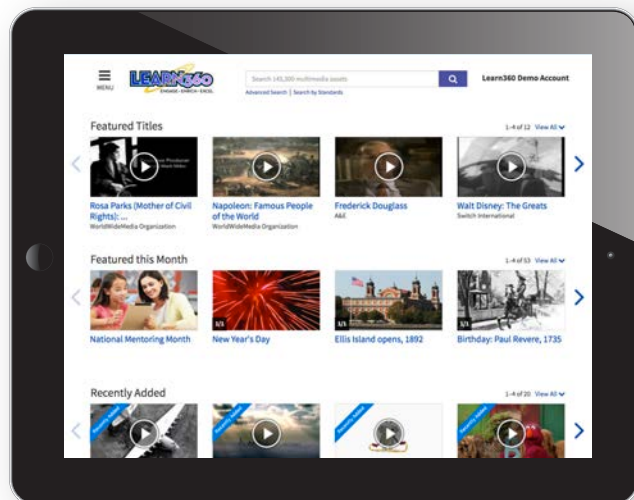

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:
Issues & Controversies (pp. 18-19): Assign the Oxford-style debate videos to watch at home, and use the printable handouts and discussion questions to spark in-class discussion and debate.

Bloom's Literature (p. 15): For homework, students can watch the classic plays and use the special guides on writing about authors, while more than 9,000 discussion questions can provide the starting point for lectures and activities.

Issues & Controversies in American History (p. 24): Have your students watch the overview videos and read the in-depth, unbiased pro/con articles to learn about important issues. Review the "What if..." sections—which suggest what could have happened had Americans chosen differently—to lead in-class debates.

Learn360

The Premier Digital Streaming Service for the K-12 Education Market

Learn360 includes a wide range of exciting content and features that make it a powerful tool for flipped classrooms, blended instruction, project-based learning, and 1:1 environments.

Plus, Learn360 was created with school budgets in mind, making it a sustainable resource year after year.
