The Full Scope of American and World History, in Five Cross-Searchable Resources

Available separately or as a bundle for maximum savings and coverage.

American History
American History was developed and curated by leading editors and scholars in the study of American history. This indispensable resource for student research features more than 500 years of political, military, social, and cultural history, with expanded coverage of American women's history and U.S. government.

Ancient & Medieval History
Provides thorough coverage of world history from prehistory through the mid-1500s, with special Topic Centers on key civilizations and regions, including the ancient Near East, Egypt, Greece, and Rome; ancient and medieval Africa, Asia, and the Americas; and medieval Europe and the Islamic World.

Modern World History
Covers the broad expanse of world history from the mid-15th century to the present, with special Topic Centers on key areas and eras, including Africa, Asia and Oceania, Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, The First Global Age, An Age of Revolutions, A Half Century of Crisis, and Promises and Paradoxes.

African-American History
Covering more than 500 years of the African-American experience, African-American History offers a fresh way to explore the full spectrum of African-American history and culture. Users can start their research with a video or slideshow overview or dig deep into an era through the Topic Centers.

American Indian History
American Indian History offers fast access to more than 15,000 years of culture and history, covering more than 600 Native American groups. This award-winning database allows for an interactive, multifaceted look at the indigenous peoples of the Americas and features Topic Centers by both era and culture area.
